

Freedom House Recovery Center

Integrated behavioral health care for children and adults

Our Non-Discrimination Policy

No one will be denied admission to any of the programs of Freedom House Recovery Center because of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, or disability, age (except as prescribed by our state licensure), or sexual orientation, except where specific conditions are excluded for non-discriminatory reasons.

It is also the policy of Freedom House Recovery Center to provide equal employment opportunity to all people without regard to political or religious affiliations, race, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, age or other non-merit factor.

